

BHMUN CODE OF CONDUCT

Last updated: October 2023

The following information must be agreed by every participant to the BHMUN conference, including; members of the Secretariat, Board Members, Delegates, Press Team, and all members of the BHMUN Executive Team. This Code of Conduct document contains rules and regulations that must be adhered to for the duration of the BHMUN conference.

Clothing:

- Formal wear is expected at all times. Casual, cultural, religious, or racist clothing items or costumes are not permitted. If an item of clothing is not found acceptable, the participant will be notified and asked to change their attire prior to being removed from the conference. If clothing deemed unacceptable is worn a second time, the participant will be removed from the conference and not permitted to return.

Attendance:

- Delegates must attend sessions on time. If a delegate misses 3 sessions, or is continuously late, then a certificate will not be given.

Electronic Devices:

- The use of electronic devices is permitted during sessions and are expected to be used for note-taking, unless otherwise stated by the President Chair.

Food and Drink:

- Food is not permitted to be consumed in committee rooms during any of the sessions. Water is permitted at any time.

Illegal Substances:

- Alcohol, tobacco, or any other illegal substances are strictly prohibited for consumption by participants at any time during the conference. If a participant is deemed to be intoxicated, then they shall be immediately removed from the conference.

Leaving Campus:

- For health and safety reasons, students are not permitted to leave the high school grounds on Saturday and Sunday, or Bilkent Hotel on Monday. If a student needs to leave the university campus for any reason, please consult your advisor who will then contact the BHMUN Director, Ms. Sera Gard. She will then grant permission to leave the high school with the security guard on duty. If you are here without an advisor, you must consult directly with the BHMUN Director.

Materials Checks

- Bag-checks are required on the night of the social event, held on Saturday 25th November 2023. If any prohibited products are found, such as the use of tobacco, alcohol consumption or any other illegal substances, we will notify the school Advisor and the delegate will be told to leave the social event and will not be permitted to continue with the conference.

Agreement:

- All participants automatically agree to the aforementioned rules and regulations for the duration of the conference. If a participant has any questions about the BHMUN Code of Conduct, please email the Head of Administrative Affairs at: bhmun@bilkent.edu.tr

I understand and agree to the rules and regulations outlined in the BHMUN Code of Conduct:
