A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A BHMUN'19 ATTENDANT

Interview With ECOFIN Chair, Ege Korkmaz

What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you hear the word Chair?

A person who happily offers help to delegates and tries to sustain an environment where everybody can debate fruitfully. A chair is a person who maintains discipline but is friendly to the members of a committee.

How has this MUN experience been for you so far? What was the most entertaining event in your committee?

So far this experience, especially regarding this conference, has been great. I've had a lot of fun and it was full of enthusiasm. My delegates were very happy and cheerful throughout the conference. We gossiped a lot. Also we sustained an environment where everybody could respect each other and debate fruitfully.

What is the best gossip you've heard so far?

"Şu üçlü gey mi? Habire birbirlerinin bacaklarına dokunuyorlar."

Interview With Our Press Editor-In-Chief, Doğa Tansel

Is it difficult to interpret and publish other people's opinions and statements?

It can be difficult when I have to rearrange and interpret some details in different ways so that they don't cause controversy. Interpreting people's answers can also be difficult. I think if I put a little bit of thought into translating people's words into more linear sentences, my job becomes very easy.

How do you select which photos to publish on the newspaper?

My go-to-method of choosing which photos to publish is finding photos that capture the feeling in a moment. It is better to select photos with emotion where people laugh, work, etc. rather than select photos with people posing, which can be dull. That's usually why crisis photos are the best; they always capture a very lively moment.

What are your pro's and con's while writing the newspaper?

I work to my fullest and I try to write relative and entertaining content. Sometimes shortening or broadening people's answers in the interviews can be difficult, as I need to keep their answers cohesive, and I spend too much time on that.

Interview With Our UNSC Admin, Derin Atmaca

Do you have any past MUN experiences?

No, this is my first time in MUN and it is thoroughly entertainining. I hope to attend more conferences in the future.

What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you hear the word admin?

Tea, coffee, and note passing. We are the epitome of butlers. Mostly we just run around trying to find whatever our chairs want us to find, which is pretty normal for an admin.

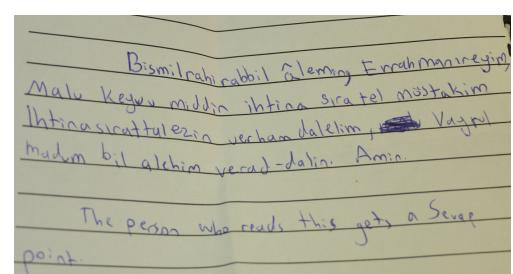

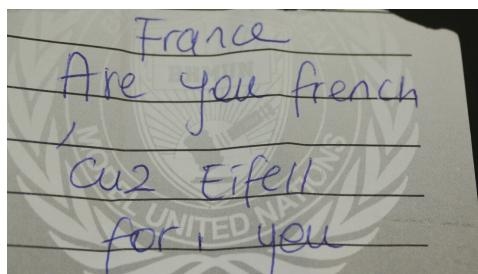

How are your chairs treating you? Are you overwhelmed by any work?

They are never satisfied with our work, despite being very sweat and kind. It is very unusual.

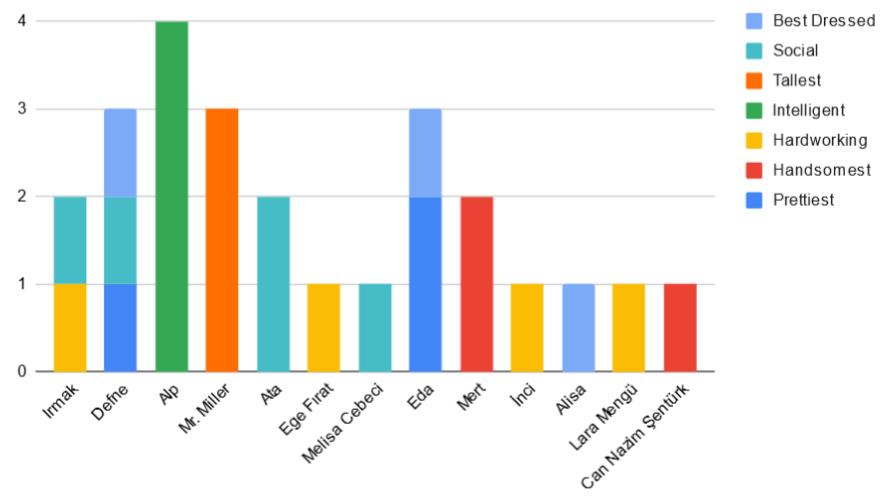

Do you feel that you have improved while working in your committee?

I understand how MUN procedures work, and I have gained more experience and confidence as I serve the chairs. I feel that I'm ready to become a delegate or a press member next year.
